

Andrew Corton

Project Cargo Underwriter
Starr Insurance Companies

Andrew has been in the London Marine market for 39 years. Both in Lloyd's and the Company markets, almost all of that time in the Cargo world. His current position is - Project Cargo Underwriter for Starr Companies in London. He is the longest serving member of the Joint Cargo Committee and has just stepped down from position of Chair after three years, he remains a committed committee member. He is a regular speaker on various subjects related to Cargo insurance such as IUMI and also ICIC. Outside of the Cargo Market, he is a qualified goalkeeping coach and says his main strength is shouting loudly and pointing his finger.