

Thomas Locqueneux
Head of Asian desk, CL Surveys

Originally from Bordeaux, Thomas LOCQUENEUX first went to study in Japan in an academic context, then professionally from 2011 to 2015, holding various positions in business development.

He then completed an MBA in China in 2015-2017, and trained in maritime transport and logistics expertise at CL SURVEYS in France, with a view to returning to Asia. His multicultural approach is easing claim management processing and understanding. Quadrilingual, he has been working as an expert in different CL China in port and inland for 5 years.

Thomas is the head of our Asian desk based in Shanghai and performing surveys in China and all over Asia.